Paradeplatz

La Paradeplatz est la place au cœur de la Bahnhofstrasse de Zurich, où les trams venus de toutes les directions se retrouvent sous un grand auvent plat. Il y avait ici un marché aux cochons ; au XIXe siècle arrivèrent un grand hôtel, un confiseur célèbre et les grands palais bancaires qui firent de la place le symbole de la finance suisse.

Sur la Bahnhofstrasse, au centre de Zurich, à mi-chemin entre la gare centrale et le lac, à quelques pas à l'ouest de St-Pierre et du Fraumünster.

Nom	Säumärt (marché aux cochons) jusqu'au XVIIe siècle, Neumarkt dès 1819, Paradeplatz depuis 1865
Palais bancaire	côté nord, 1873 à 1876, par Jakob Friedrich Wanner, qui dessina aussi le hall de la gare centrale
Hôtel	côté est, ouvert en 1838 comme premier grand hôtel de la ville
Confiserie	Sprüngli, côté sud depuis 1859
Trams	trams à chevaux dès 1882, trams électriques dès 1896, premier abri d'attente en 1928
Notre maquette	montre le côté ouest avec des maisons bourgeoises, tel qu'il était avant l'immeuble de bureaux actuel des années 1950

Le modèle que tu vas construire.

Au fil des siècles

jusqu'au XVIIe siècle	L'espace ouvert hors des remparts sert de Säumärt, un marché où l'on vend cochons et autres bêtes.
1819	La place est rebaptisée Neumarkt, le nouveau marché.
1838	Johannes Baur ouvre le premier grand hôtel de la ville à l'extrémité est de la place.
1859	La confiserie Sprüngli quitte la vieille ville pour les nouvelles maisons du côté sud.
1865	La place prend le nom de Paradeplatz, en référence à l'arsenal (Zeughaus) voisin.
1873 à 1876	La Kreditanstalt construit son palais du côté nord pour en faire son siège.
1882	Trois lignes de tram à chevaux traversent la place ; le tram électrique suit en 1896.
1928	Le premier abri d'attente pour le tram est construit au milieu de la place.

Des cochons aux banques

Bien avant de symboliser l'argent, la place était le Säumärt, le marché aux cochons hors des remparts. Puis vinrent un hôtel, une confiserie et les banques, et l'ancien marché aux cochons devint l'adresse la plus chic de Zurich.

Le mauvais pari

Quand Sprüngli installa ici sa confiserie, il aurait cru que la nouvelle gare serait construite directement sur la place. Elle fut finalement bâtie un kilomètre plus au nord, mais le magasin a prospéré quand même et il est toujours là.

La place la plus chère

Sur le plateau du Monopoly suisse, la Paradeplatz est la case la plus chère. Regarde sous l'auvent du tram dans notre maquette : une petite maison verte et un hôtel rouge s'y cachent.

OÙ LE TROUVER À ZURICH

Adresse
Paradeplatz, 8001 Zürich

Pour y aller
De nombreuses lignes de tram s'arrêtent à Paradeplatz ; depuis la gare centrale, compte aussi 10 minutes à pied en descendant la Bahnhofstrasse.

Conseil
Reste une minute sur l'îlot du tram pour voir arriver les trams de toutes les directions, puis continue vers le Fraumünster et St-Pierre, à quelques minutes seulement.

Trie tes briques par groupes de couleurs avant de commencer, un bol par groupe. Les tons clairs et foncés d'une couleur se ressemblent sous une lumière chaude : trie-les à la lumière du jour. Chaque étape donne la couleur de chaque pièce, d'abord en mots simples, le nom officiel entre parenthèses.

D'abord : assembler les plaques de base

La base se compose de 4 plaques de 16 × 16 tenons (Gris clair (Light Bluish Grey)), 32 × 32 tenons en tout. Aux étapes 1 à 2, pose les 8 plaques sur la table, tenons en haut, aux contours en pointillés. À l'étape 3, presse les plaques de base dessus, bord à bord : chaque plaque du dessous est à moitié sous une plaque de base et à moitié sous la suivante, et verrouille le joint sur toute sa longueur.

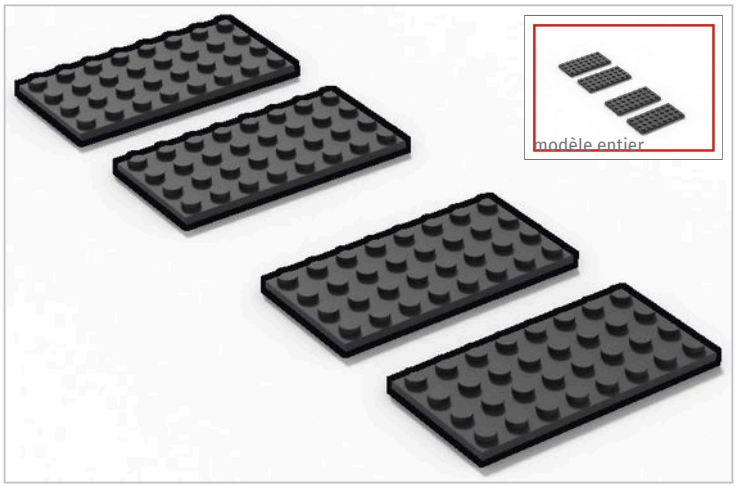

DEVANT : ce bord est face à toi dans les images des étapes. Tirets rouges : les joints.

1 plaque 8 × 4, Noir (Black), dessous : 12 tenons du bord gauche, 24 de l'avant
2 plaque 8 × 4, Noir (Black), dessous : 12 tenons du bord gauche, 18 de l'avant

Ensuite : le support passe sous la base

Aux étapes 4–5, tant que la base est encore plate et légère, soulève son bord avant et presse les 4 longues plaques noires dessous : à moitié sous la base, à moitié dépassant devant, aux contours en pointillés. Soulève ensuite le bord arrière et presse les 3 petites plaques noires (les pieds) dessous. Le modèle repose maintenant d'aplomb sur son support ; la bande et la plaque du nom se posent ensuite sur les longues plaques.

Ta plaque nominative

Imprime cette page à 100 % (sans « ajuster à la page »), découpe une étiquette le long du trait gris et colle-la sur la plaque beige 2 × 8 du socle. Conseil : du papier autocollant ou une bande de ruban adhésif transparent par-dessus la fait durer plus longtemps.

La place la plus chère

Regarde sous l'auvent du tram, sur le toit du kiosque : une petite maison verte et un hôtel rouge s'y cachent.

La Paradeplatz est la case la plus chère du Monopoly suisse.

Bien avant l'arrivée des banques, c'était le marché aux cochons de la ville, le Säumärt.
